

Maxwell (Max) Carl Struever

maxstruever@gmail.com
strumc7@wfu.edu

Home: (410) 962-0423 227 Lanasa Lane, Baltimore, MD, 21230
Mobile: (443) 463-0969 WFU Box 6110, Winston-Salem, NC 27109

Summary of Qualifications

- Strong passion for mathematics, problem solving, and providing support for others
- Computer programming (C++, C#, Obj. C, Java, HTML, CSS, Javascript/JQuery, PHP, MySQL, MS SQL Srvr)
- Proficient in Spanish, 7 years of classes; 2 years Arabic
- Ability to listen to and work with clients to support them with a product or service

Education

Wake Forest University, Winston-Salem, NC;

B.S. Computer Science Minor: Math, Middle East/South Asian Studies expected December, 2010 (semester early)

Cumulative GPA: 3.45 on 4.0 scale, Dean's List

Park School, Baltimore, MD

Graduated June, 2007 Cumulative GPA: 3.86 on a 4.0 scale

Employment

Private Web Developer (ongoing)

I write and support websites on my own for paying customers, see my site www.madmaxlax.com for a summary

- Design sites and communicate with clients to make it have the look and feel they desire
- Support the site 24/7 and often turned out requested site changes or fixed errors within a few hours
- Set up meetings with clients online or in person to work out site changes and/or payment

Software/Web Developer

Internet Testing Systems, Baltimore, MD, US; Summers 2009 and 2010

ITS is a company that provides customized web-based examinations for its clients which include Google

- Learned HTML, CSS, C#, javascript, JQuery (& plugins), Microsoft SQL Server
- Helped train other interns by the end of the summer
- Had to learn languages and applications/programming styles of the company well enough to understand them and add on to them
- Collaborated with programming team, used Visual Source Safe and unit testing to collaborate on coding

Home Repairman and Carpenter assistant

Mr. Handyman, Owings Mills, MD, US; Summer 2007

Mr. Handyman is a national professional handyman service

- Worked under and took direction from a certified professional on jobs at one or two different locations daily; both residential and commercial
- Listened to customers about their problem and collaborated with supervisor to come up with a solution
- Learned framing and finishing, plumbing repairs, drywall repairs, exterior and interior painting, power-washing; and installing counters and cabinets

Information Technology/Help Desk assistant

Struever Brothers Eccles and Rouse, Baltimore, MD, US; Summers 2005 and 2006

- Became familiar with company's technology policies and standards such as setting up user accounts and profiles and learned how to implement these policies, prepared new computers for use by employees
- Assisted, sometimes independently, with computer end-user support for other employees

Activities and Awards

- Information Systems Student Program attended monthly meetings; correspond with vendors about products; tested and reviewed tech products; assisted freshman during orientation with new computers
- Member: Upsilon Pi Epsilon, Computer Science Honor Society, invited for being in top third of class
- Member: Association for Computing Machinery (ACM): computer science society

Technical Skills

- Familiar with command-line & GUI Linux platform; LogicWorks/computer architecture; online banking and investment tools
- Support-level knowledge of Windows XP, Vista, Microsoft Office 2003-2010 Beta; Google apps; Windows Mobile, Android platform, Blackberry operating system, proficient in several programming languages
- Green: Proficient with Energy Star website and application process as well as LEED Building process

Reference contact information and transcripts available upon request